COMMUNICATION

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

This communication pertains to the Response submitted December 13, 2002. Attached please find a copy of the resume of Neil Winegarden.

REMARKS

In the unlikely event that the Patent Office determines that an extension and/or other relief is required, applicant petitions for any required relief including extensions of time and authorizes the Assistant Commissioner to charge the cost of such petitions and/or other fees due in connection with the filing of this document to Deposit Account No. 03-1952 referencing docket no. 592492000100. However, the Assistant Commissioner is not authorized to charge the cost of the issue fee to the Deposit Account.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: January 27, 2003

Professional Experience

2002 – Present      University Health Network      Toronto, ON

Head of Operations, Microarray Centre

- Oversee the day to day operations of the Microarray Centre
- Supervise a team of 18-20 staff, including 2 managers
- Coordinate the larger staff of 30, including 3 research scientists
- Coordinate research of a large project group for Genome Canada Grant
- Assist in administering 4 grants worth over $12M in total
- Recruit technical and management staff
- Assist in the recruitment of an engineering manager to start a new automation team
- Direct research and development in the Microarray Centre
- Recruit partnerships from the biotechnology industry for new product and technology development
- Deliver presentations on microarray technology and new developments at internationally held workshops and conferences
- Draft contracts and transfer agreements
- Coordinate marketing of the Microarray Centre including arranging for booths at tradeshow
- Organize international symposiums on microarray technology in partnership with the Professional Development Centre of the University of Toronto.

1999-2002      University Health Network      Toronto, ON

Manager of Commercialization and External Contracts, Microarray Centre

- Assisted in development, marketing and testing of advanced robotic components for high throughput molecular biology applications
- Recruited partnerships from the biotechnology industry for novel technology development
- Marketed products and services generated through the microarray laboratory at the University Health Network
- Delivered presentations on current technologies in the laboratory at internationally held workshops and conferences
- Developed partnerships with leading commercial biotechnology companies for co-development and testing of novel products
- Further designed and wrote software for data analysis and visualization
- Drafted contracts and transfer agreements
- Recruited, trained and supervised technicians in the microarray technology laboratory

- Directed research and development in the microarray technology laboratory
- Organized international symposiums on microarray technology in partnership with the Professional Development Centre of the University of Toronto.

1998 – 1999                      Ontario Cancer Institute, Princess Margaret Hospital                      Toronto, ON

Research Technician Level 4, Microarray Laboratory

- Assisted in the development of an advanced robotic microarray fabrication system
- Developed robotic operating protocols through software design for microarray printing
- Assisted in the development of protocols for microarray manufacture, usage, and analysis
- Presented seminars on microarray technology at international workshops (by invitation)
- Developed partnerships with biotechnology companies to act as beta-testers for new hardware, software and molecular biology products
- Assisted in the training of researchers for use of array technology
- Designed and wrote software programs for data analysis and visualization
- Assisted in the design of advanced bioinformatics software for data collection and warehousing

1998                                      Allelix Pharmaceuticals                                      Mississauga, ON

Research Associate, New Technology and Virology Departments

- Assisted in the implementation of genetic microarray technology
- Helped coordinate efforts to develop highly specific probes
- Developed software modules to control a prototype robot for array fabrication
- Suggested and tested new methods to improve and advance the technology
- Developed new screening technologies to find novel antiviral agents
- Adapted existing technologies to a high-throughput platform

Patents

A patent entitled "Methods for Production of Microarrays of Biological Samples" has been filed in Canada and the United States of America.

- Canadian patent October 3rd, 2000 (#2,322,086)
- US provisional patent October 4th, 2000 (60/237,369)
- Methods related to the use, function and design of a microarraying robot.
- Methods related to the calibration of the robotics, testing of arrayer accuracy and quality control of arrays.
